

Language testing

The Faculty of Letters organizes languages tests and issues language certificates for levels A1, A2, B1, B2, C1 and C2 (for Erasmus and other types of academic mobilities, applications for master and doctoral programs, job applications where such a document is requested etc.). Candidates are to check the level they need with the institution that requires the certificate.

The test has four components: Reading comprehension (understanding a written text), Writing (a short essay, dialogue, letter, narrative etc. and use of English), Listening comprehension (understanding spoken language) and Speaking (a short interview). Each component is marked separately on the language certificate.

You can get a rough picture of your current level of language by checking information at http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Common_European_Framework_of_Reference_for_Languages

The fee can be paid at any BRD office or online to the account of the Faculty of Letters (code 1311, license 01) the Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iasi RO68BRDE240SV89534452400, fee code = 40 (language testing fee) before the test:

- The fee for levels A1, A2 and B1 is 80 lei; the fee for levels B2, C1 and C2 is 150 lei.
- All certificates are valid for 2 years after the test date.
